9	Dartmoor National Park Call For Sites is now open.	To note that Dartmoor National Park are now inviting Parish Councils, landowners, developers, community groups and local residents to suggest sites for consideration as part of the preparation of the new Local Plan. They are looking for a wide range of potential development opportunities that could help meet future needs across Dartmoor. This includes sites that could support: • Affordable housing and other specialist housing to meet local needs • Employment and business development • Gypsy and Traveller pitches • Community facilities • Mixed use sites • Small scale renewable or low carbon energy development • Local Green Spaces (as defined in the NPPF HC2) • Minerals and waste The Call for Sites exercise will not determine whether a site is allocated for development. Instead, it will help identify a broad pool of potential sites for further assessment through technical evidence and public consultation. The findings will inform future decisions on site allocations in the new Local Plan. The Call For Sites is open until 26th February 2027.
