There were 7 members of the public present, including Cllr. Philip Sanders (DCC & DNPA), Cllr. Mark Renders (WDBC & DNPA), Cllrs Andy Paskins & Fred Glanville (Burrator Parish Council).

Abbreviations used: DFPC: Dartmoor Forest Parish Council, DNPA: Dartmoor National Park Authority, WDBC: West Devon Borough Council, DCC: Devon County Council.

- 1. Apologies Received Cllr. Julian Greatrex (technical issues), Cllr. Wendy Watson (technical issues).
- 2. Declarations of Interest No further interests declared.
- 3. Princetown CCTV Project Clerk provided the following update:
  - a) Installation scheduled 19th January 2021, system expected to be operational within a few days of this.
  - b) Devon Highways are required to approve signage and locations. Final details of lamppost locations have been surveyed by Cllr. Worth and will be submitted to Highways as soon as possible.
  - c) Data Protection Impact Assessment – the council resolved to approve this document.
- 4. Dartmoor 'Snow Tourist' parking and access issues the council resolved to convene a meeting of all appropriate authorities, including; Devon & Cornwall Police, Devon Highways, West Devon Borough Council, Dartmoor National Park; Devon & Somerset Fire & Rescue Service and other affected parishes to develop a plan to address the issues of inconsiderate & irresponsible driving and parking on the moor. Although a similar meeting had been held in 2015 on this issue, it was agreed that any future meeting and actions should be led by Dartmoor Forest Parish Council.
Cllrs. Paskins and Glanville, representing Burrator Parish Council advised that they were supportive of this multiagency meeting and wished to support DFPC on this measure. Clerk to contact appropriate organisations to organise meeting.
